

Hockey New Brunswick – 2020-2021 Certification Update

Due to the COVID-19, Hockey New Brunswick will be adjusting how coach clinics are delivered during the 2020-2021 season.

Coach 1 and Coach 2 clinics will only be delivered virtually, via Zoom. A schedule for the clinics is provided below, and registration is now live. In addition to the virtual component, coaches will be required to take the Hockey University Online Coach 1/2 prior to signing up for a Coach 1 or Coach 2 clinic. Hockey University Online Coach 1/2 can be found at: <https://hnb.ca/en/clinics/clinic-schedule>

The below online courses can be taken at any time between now and the certification deadline. The deadline is December 15th for all certification, with the exception of the Respect in Sport Parent Program, which is December 1st.

- Hockey University Planning a Safe Return to Hockey
- Hockey University Online Checking
- Hockey University Online Coach 1/2 (Prerequisite for Coach 1 and Coach 2)
- Hockey University Hockey Canada Online Safety
- Respect in Sport Activity Leader
- Respect in Sport Parent Program

For Development 1, one clinic will be held virtually, and two clinics will be held in person. The virtual clinic will be held October 18th, 25th, November 1st and November 8th – each session will be two hours and delegates must be present for all sessions.

In person Development 1 clinics will be October 24th in Moncton and November 14th in Fredericton.

A Hockey Canada ‘We are Coaches’ clinic will be held for female coaches. Specific details will be sent out at a later date.
